

MANAGING A JOB & CARING RESPONSIBILITIES

CareWiseSolutions.org | CareWiseSolutions.com

Managing A Job & Caring Responsibilities

For Employee Caregivers and Their Families

These practical solutions help family caregivers stay employed, reduce stress, and ultimately on average support aging in place for an additional 9 months to a year.

With employees using these CareWise Solutions, employers discover reduced absenteeism and medical costs, fewer LOAs, greater engagement, and ultimately higher productivity.

A foundation to begin the journey as an employee-caregiver, these 6 eBook guides, the Caring Place HUB, and independent living app offer real solutions.

CARE BETTER. WORK BETTER. LIVE BETTER.
Work and care more naturally with CareWise Solutions.

PACKAGE CONTENTS

Employee-Caregiver 4 eBook series with a free copy for family members

How Caregiving Impacts the Organization 2 comprehensive eBooks

The Caring Place HUB

Aging at Home App
- Powered by BrioCare

Being a full-time employee with caregiving responsibilities is hard. Most caregivers start “helping out” for just a few hours but end up spending over 20 hours a week supporting the care of a loved one.

CareWise Solutions help caregivers and their families reduce stress, avoid burnout, and reinforce mental health.

Employee-Caregiver 4 eBook series

With a free copy for family members

Employee Caregiver Employment Guide

Employed caregivers are the new workforce majority. Currently 80% of caregivers are employed. Over the next 30 years every American will be touched by caregiving responsibilities. This educational guide builds awareness to help employed caregivers keep their jobs and their companies retain their dwindling workforce. No one should have to choose between loving a family member and making a living.

Caregiving and Your Career eBook

If you have aging, ill or disabled parents, children, relatives or friends, the chances are that you are already providing some form of “care.” Maybe you are caring for more than one person. Such as your elderly mom and dad? This educational guide builds awareness to help employed caregivers keep their jobs and manage the details of caring for a loved one.

The Plan and Family Unit eBook

No matter where you are in the caregiver journey, a Care Plan is critical. You'll need to assess and implement aspects of your care plan on an ongoing basis, remaining open to changes as needs shift. Here we begin the journey together by outlining the employee-caregiver situation, the impact on families and how to develop and manage an effect plan. This information is foundational for positive solutions for everyone involved.

How to Work and Care eBook

Most caregivers are not prepared for how much of their life will change as their time and energy go into caring for a loved one. You probably stepped forward out of a reasonable sense of duty. You expected yourself and others expected you to help out because it was the right thing to do. This educational guide discusses the impact on employed caregivers, offering solutions to keep their jobs and still manage the details of caring for a loved one.

Caregivers, Caregiving, and Employment Organization eBooks

The Facts and Figures – Employment and Caregiving

Experts have tagged the next decade as a time of momentous convergence shifts in the way we work. The policies and employer/employee relationships forged in the Industrial Age are disappearing. Uncover the impact that caregiving has on your organization. The traditional power dynamic between the organization and the employees has been permanently reversed. This eBook gives companies the background information they need to gain more awareness of how to support family caregivers in their organization while maintaining productivity.

The Challenges Facing Employee Caregivers in Their Dual Roles

Family caregivers carry a financial, logistical, and emotional burden. In the United States, the healthcare system forces companies to hire out employees to work for free caring for loved ones. As a result, companies pick up the tab in lowered productivity, higher medical insurance fees, absenteeism. This unstable workforce creates an opportunity for employers to develop programs to counter these effects to restore organizational balance.

The Caring Place Hub

The Caring Place Hub is an online dashboard that includes proprietary and curated resources for Employers, Employee-Caregivers and families. The Caring Place model provides employers with easily implementable solutions to keep employees on the job. Workshops, online seminars, discussion groups, and care circles provide the information needed at all levels of the organization.

The Caring Place Hub includes:

- Blogs
- Expert advice
- Seminars, education, and learning
- Access to Professionals in Care Management Services
- Employee-Caregiver and Team Leader stories for learning and sharing
- Renewal and Adventure Programs for Employee-Caregivers
- Newsletters
- Tested Curated Marketplace
- Wellness work and care programs
- Exclusive work and care circle program for members
- Easy Access to Tested, Curated Professional Associations, Government Resources
- Caring Place Resources to keep employees on the job

Employee-caregivers access wellness work and care programs, The Caring Place, direct support, curated, tested resources, and discounts.

Team Leaders access workshops on how to best support employee-caregivers, reduce legal issues, and increase inclusion.

Aging at Home App – Powered by BrioCare

Help the people you love stay connected and engaged. It's incredibly easy to set up and use, incorporating the latest voice technology. With this caregiver app, there is no need to sacrifice your own well-being for that of your loved ones. You'll have peace of mind, time and energy to focus on your own family's needs. Additionally, save money by lowering the burden of an in-home caregiver by using your caregiver mobile app. Full Year of Service. Upgrade at any time.

Leave of Absence is not your only option!

Take the next step with CareWise Solutions TODAY!

PACKAGE PRICING

$499

BUY NOW

Contact Us

CareWise Solutions-org is a non-profit educational organization. Our focus is to activate a generational shift in line with the Baby Boomer Generation's aging, life, and care expectations. The Baby Boomer generation has always had high expectations, and we see no reason that should stop now.

We believe employed caregivers, their families, and their employers deserve to be treated with respect to preserve dignity as America ages.

Web
CareWiseSolutions.org
CareWiseSolutions.com

Email
info@CareWiseSolutions.com